National Association of Women Business Owners

“Get a seat at the table or build your own table, and make sure to include other women.”

—NAWBO's Founding President
Susan Hager

Entrepreneurship can be a lonely path at times. You face unique highs and lows and challenges and opportunities that others do not understand unless they have gone down that path before you or are going down it alongside you. It's a special connection—a community—of leaders, visionaries, innovators and trailblazers that, when tapped into, can power your business, lifestyle and community in a way like no other.

As it's been said: “Sisterhood is the essence of all the wisdom of the ages, distilled into a single word. You cannot see sisterhood, neither can you hear it, nor taste it. But you can feel it a hundred times a day. It is a pat on the back, a smile of encouragement. It's someone to share with, to celebrate your achievements.” —Anonymous. Join the leading organization for education and support of women business owners today—the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO).
