

Dear NAWBO Members, Corporate Sponsors and Guests,

Happy Holidays! As we approach the close of another remarkable year, my heart is full of gratitude and joy for this incredible community. Each of you—our members, guests, and corporate sponsors—bring so much energy, wisdom, and passion to NAWBO Charlotte, and together, we've built a truly inspiring network of women supporting women. Thank you for your contributions, your dedication, and for making this year a resounding success.

Let's celebrate all we've accomplished and the connections we've forged at our Holiday Party on Tuesday, December 12th, at 6:00 PM at the Bank of America Tower. It promises to be an evening of connection, conversation, and holiday cheer! This is the perfect chance to toast to our achievements, meet new friends, and deepen relationships within our amazing NAWBO community. Be sure to check the newsletter for registration details—we can't wait to see you there!

Looking ahead to 2025, we're kicking off the new year with renewed energy and inspiration at our January Signature Lunch Meeting on Tuesday, January 14th. We're thrilled to welcome Emily Green, who will share her powerful talk, "Spin It to Win It: The Art of Turning a Negative Into a Positive." This engaging session on personal branding and resilience is the perfect way to start the year with a positive mindset and practical tools to turn challenges into triumphs. Mark your calendars—this is an event you don't want to miss!

As we celebrate this holiday season, I want to thank you once again for being the heart and soul of NAWBO Charlotte. Your generosity, support, and shared commitment to empowering women in business are what make this organization so special. Here's to a holiday season filled with joy, laughter, and meaningful moments—and to an exciting, prosperous new year ahead!

In Gratitude,

Rochelle Stewart
